

Submittee: Rohana Ambagaspitiya
Date Submitted: 2016-03-04 09:39
Title: Actuarial Science Information Session
Event Type: Lecture-Seminar-Series

Location:
Room EEEL 345, University of calgary

Dates:
February 5, 2016 from 1:00PM-3:00PM

Topic:
Actuarial Practice in Canada

Methodology:
Lecture. Speakers presented overview of actuarial practice in Canada. It was aimed at all the undergraduate students in the department of Mathematics.

Objectives Achieved:
Students learned requirements needed to become an actuary in Canada. They also learned important facts about job outlook, what courses that they need to take and what other soft skills they need to become a successful actuary.

Organizers:
Ambagaspitiya, Rohana, Mathematics and Statistics, University of Calgary

Speakers:
Mr Chris Fievoli, resident actuary, Canadian Institute of Actuaries,

Mr Peter Muirhead, consulting actuary
<http://pbiactuarial.ca/our-team/benefits-practice/peter-muirhead/>

Links:
