

Submittee: Stephanie Portet

Date Submitted: 2016-07-07 13:20

Title: Annual Meeting of the Biophysical Society of Canada (Theoretical Session)

Event Type: Conference-Workshop

Location:

St Paul's College, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Manitoba

Dates:

June 1-3, 2016

Topic:

Theoretical/Mathematical Biology

Methodology:

lectures and poster sessions

Objectives Achieved:

Two excellent Keynote lectures by leading Theoretical Biologists (Alex Mogilner, New York University; Kranthi Manadadapu, University of California-Berkeley).

Scientific Highlights:

Great Opportunity of interaction between Theoreticians, Experimentalists and Industrial representatives. Interactive forum between well established researchers and trainees.

Organizers:

See attached Documents for the Organizing Committee

Speakers:

See attached Documents for the list of speakers

Links:

<http://meetings.biophysicalsociety.ca/>

Comments / Miscellaneous:

Please note that PIMS has been acknowledged as a sponsor in Page five of the Conference Program. (See the attached file program.pdf)

File Uploads:

Additional Upload 1: http://www.pims.math.ca/files/final_report/Program_3.pdf
