

Time: Tuesday May 3rd, 2011 10:00am

Location: Buchanan A203

Bent functions and partial spreads

Hui Yi Lu, Simon Fraser University

Bent functions are functions as different as possible from linear functions. The motivation for studying bent functions is their important role in Cryptography and Coding Theory. We give two results about constructing bent functions on fields of odd characteristic. This is a joint work with Petr Lisonek.