

Time: Wednesday May 4th, 2011 8:30am

Location: Buchanan A202

Modelling the impact of the Health Impact Fund

Ghashang Piroozfar, University of Calgary

The Health Impact Fund (HIF) is designed to reward any new priced-at-cost medicine, based on its health impact by the purpose that, prevalent diseases in poor countries draw more pharmaceutical research. So our aim is figuring out under what conditions pharmaceutical firms have more motivation to join this system and how we can increase these incentives by Game Theoretical modellings.